Exhibits at the True Spin Conference

Tables will be provided for conference participants to leave information for other conference attendees.

Organizations that want more space can apply to set up an exhibit booth.

Conference exhibits will be located on the same floor of the hotel where all workshops, lectures, and receptions will take place.

Each exhibit space is at least six-feet wide and deep, and thus able to accommodate a six-foot table across the front.

You will be provided with a six-foot table and access to electricity.

The cost for one exhibit space is $100 for nonprofit organizations and $800 for for-profits.

To apply for exhibit booth space, please provide the following information.

Exhibitors may begin assembling their exhibits at 8 a.m. Thursday, Jan 21, 2010, and all exhibits must be dismantled by 4 p.m. Friday, Jan. 22, 2010. Your exhibit location will be given to you upon your arrival. You may leave your exhibit in place overnight on the night of Jan 21. However, neither the True Spin Conference nor the Curtis Hotel, will be responsible for any of your property during the night or any time during the period that you are using the exhibit space. To be sure that your property is not lost or stolen, it's advised that you watch it continuously while your exhibit remains in place at the hotel.

Exhibit space will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. We'll let you know within a week after receipt of your application whether there is space for you.
